

Sławomir Krupa

Curriculum vitae

Sławomir Krupa was born in 1974. He is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris which he finished in 1996 and in the same year he began his career as an Inspector in the Societe Generale Bank.

In 1999 he left the group to found and run an internet company in the field of e-finance in the Middle-East European countries.

In 2002 he returned to work with the Societe Generale Group but this time within the Control and Inspection Department. He was appointed to the Management Committee of this Department in 2005.

He became the Chief of Staff for Societe Generale Corporate and Investment Banking in 2007.

Since 2009 he is a member of Board of the Corporate and Investment Banking Department in Societe General as a Head of Strategy and Corporate Development and CEO of Central and Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Sławomir Krupa is a member of Supervisory Board of the Lyxor Asset Management and Euro Bank S.A. He lives and works in Paris.